Policy Statement

Health and Safety Policy

Statement of Intent

Enva Scotland Limited is comprised of the business units Recycling Scotland and Specialist Scotland, with a wide range of recycling, composting and hazardous waste activities within their remit. The company is committed to ensuring that practical and effective measures are in place to protect the health, safety and welfare of our employees, contractors, clients, others affected by our operations and the community where we live and conduct our business.

The principals in the delivery of this policy are:

- Strong and active leadership with detailed health and safety management arrangements
- To comply with the requirements and targets set by health and safety regulations
- To monitor, evaluate and continuously improve our performance in health and safety.
- Identify, evaluate and manage health and safety through risk assessment of our activities.
- To provide and maintain a safe working environment for employees and the wider community
- Provide visible and active commitment from the company leaders.
- Clear accountability at all levels.
- Effective consultation with the workforce in health and safety matters.
- Setting health and safety standards and goals throughout the business.
- Allocation of appropriate resource.

Responsibilities for Health and Safety

The implementation, maintenance and monitoring of the Company Health and Safety Policy shall be the responsibility of the Operations Director for Enva Scotland Ltd.

Competent persons will be appointed to assist in meeting our statutory duties, including where appropriate, specialists from external organizations.

The successful implementation of this policy requires total commitment from all levels of the organisation, from company directors, senior managers and front-line staff.

Policy Statement

Employee Behavior and Involvement

- Participating in the company's consultation processes
- Ensuring their continued competence to carry out their duties is maintained.
- Engaging with promotion and achievement of the company's health and safety standards.
- Fulfill their legal duty to take reasonable care to ensure their own safety and that of others who may be affected by either their acts or their omissions. (Health and Safety at Work Act 1974, Sections 7 and 8).

Arrangements for Health and Safety

The business will seek to reduce or eliminate hazards in the workplace by implementing the following arrangements

- Implement the findings of risk assessments, putting in place the identified control measures.
- Provide training to ensure that company staff have sufficient knowledge, skills and competencies to safely carry out their duties.
- Provide sufficient resources and supervision to ensure the health and safety of our staff and subcontractors is not compromised.
- Monitor the health and safety performance of the company and make adjustments as necessary. Monitoring will include management inspections, regular audits, testing of environmental conditions and health surveillance.
- The business will proactively communicate QHSE information to internal and external stakeholders as required. These arrangements can include but are not limited to reports, direct e-mail, toolbox talks and relevant posters.

This policy will be regularly monitored to ensure that our objectives and continual improvement goals are achieved.

Policy Statement

Environmental Policy

Statement of Intent

Enva Scotland Limited is comprised of the business units Recycling Scotland and Specialist Scotland, with a wide range of recycling, composting and hazardous waste activities within their remit.

Enva recognises and embraces the statutory obligations placed upon the organisation by relevant legislative and regulatory requirements. As a progressive waste management company, we are firmly committed to achieving high operational and management standards in accordance with these statutory requirements.

Furthermore, we are committed to the prevention of the pollution of land, air and water and carbon reduction through a policy of continually improving our environmental performance. This aim encompasses both wider global environmental pollution issues and local pollution arising from company operations.

Responsibilities for Environmental Protection

- A nominated manager shall take responsibility for Environmental Policy.
- Establishment of clear objectives and targets and allocating sufficient resources to achieve these targets.
- Regular review of environmental performance.

Resources and Waste Management

- Minimising energy consumption, use of materials and natural resources, such as water. ENVA's aim is to conserve these resources and reduce emissions of greenhouse gases that arise from our activities and our customer's waste.
- Reduce the production of waste as far as is reasonably practical in all spheres of operation.
- Promoting the recycling of materials wherever possible within the company and the development of innovative recycling opportunities.

compliance matters

Policy Statement

- Where practicable render unavoidable wastes harmless and dispose of them in a manner which has the least impact on the environment.

Communication

- Maintain an effective environmental awareness program for all employees.
- Active promotion of the company's environmental policy to all stakeholders and interested parties.

Policy Statement

Quality Policy

Scope

Enva Scotland Limited is comprised of the business units Recycling Scotland and Specialist Scotland, with a wide range of recycling, composting and hazardous waste activities within their remit.

The scope of this policy includes all processes carried out at both Enva's and our customers sites, the creation of products and the measurement of the activities associated with these processes.

On-site processes are generally described as:

- The provision of a service of waste collection, treatment, and disposal.
- Product manufacture including glass and brick aggregate, sorting and baled RDF, cardboard, paper, and plastics. In addition, compost and a sand replacement product for concrete manufacture are produced as products within the business.

Objectives

By taking into account the significant aspects, legal obligations, other applicable requirements, and the commitment to continual improvement, the division has set certain objectives and KPI's with associated targets in order to measure the progress in achieving these objectives.

Customers expect a quality and professional level of service from the business, which means our people strive to deliver quality in everything that we do, from service, delivery, cost and performance to health and safety, innovation and environmental management.

Promoting Continual Improvement

By setting objectives and targets we can drive continual improvement in our services that we provide. We also regularly review the ways, in which we work, to identify opportunities for improvement and sustain the success of our organisation.

Monitoring Performance

Monitoring and measuring our performance allow us to monitor progress against set targets

compliance matters

Policy Statement

We evaluate the monitoring results against our quality objectives and compliance with legal requirements. Our audit programme is based on our business risks, our performance, results of previous audits and the scope of our management systems. Appropriate actions are taken and tracked to completion addressing any areas of concern.

Review

Management reviews shall be held at regular intervals to ensure performance is continuing to meet expectations. This meeting will be recorded and appropriate actions from the meeting are tracked to completion.

In order to meet these requirements, there are responsibilities at each level within the company who will be responsible for the promotion and following the principles required of the policy:

Operations Director

- Reviewing, endorsing and achieving this policy's aims.
- Ensuring that procedures meet the requirements of the needs of the quality system.

Managers are responsible for

- Implementing, enforcing and reviewing the processes and procedures for their area of responsibility.
- Ensuring their people are aware of their responsibilities and receive appropriate training.
- Ensuring that every effort is made to meet quality objectives and targets.

Employees are responsible for

- Carrying out their work in line with this policy and associated procedures.
- Coaching colleagues where their performance falls short of the expectations of this policy.
- Ensuring that every effort is made to meet quality objectives and targets.

compliance matters

Enva Policy Statement

Anti Bribery & Corruption

Enva is committed to the highest standards of integrity and has adopted and conducts a zero tolerance approach to bribery and corruption. This applies to both employees and anyone acting on Enva's behalf. This policy sets out the standards expected of all Enva employees in relation to bribery and corruption by clearly stating the responsibilities upon those working for and with us. It provides guidance on how to avoid, recognise and tackle any issues.

This policy is also relevant for third parties who undertake services on our behalf. Enva expects those third parties to abide by this policy or have equivalent policies in place that combat bribery and corruption. Enva takes its responsibilities seriously due to the significant risks that non-compliance brings should employees or service providers fail to comply.

Bribery

A bribe is any financial or other type of advantage offered, promised or given from one person to another in order to gain commercial, contractual, regulatory or personal advantage. Bribes are not just monetary; they can be any type of gift, hospitality or inducement. A contract or transaction does not need to happen or be completed for bribery to have taken place. To comply with this policy:

1. Do not offer promise or pay/provide bribes;
2. Do not accept, request or agree to bribes;

Gifts, Hospitality & Entertainment

This policy does not prohibit normal and appropriate gifts, entertainment and hospitality, both received and given, from and to third parties. Routine and inexpensive activities such as business breakfasts/lunches and small items of promotional material such as Enva branded marketing items remain appropriate to what we do. However, any other type of gifts, hospitality or entertainment is subject to the following rules:

- they are appropriate to the circumstances and there is no risk that they could be perceived as improperly influencing the recipient;

compliance matters

Version 1

- they are for the purpose of establishing or maintaining good and ethical business relationships;
- they improve the image or reputation of Enva and is arranged in good faith
- any gifts hospitality or entertainment is not offered promised or accepted to secure an advantage for the company or any of it's employees, or to influence the impartiality of the recipient;

Enva has procedures for accepting or providing gifts, hospitality or entertainment. In general, this should be with the full and open knowledge of your manager and, where possible, in advance. The expenses system should be used to record any such spending or arrangements. If you answer yes to any of the following questions about any exchanges, you must discuss the issue with your manager:

1. Is it intended to influence a third party, gain or retain advantage;
2. Is the gift/hospitality in your individual name rather than Enva's name;
3. Is any part of it cash or cash equivalent;
4. Is any part of the transaction secretive;
5. Is it in breach of any local law;

Report to your manager or any other manager any suspected or actual bribery, or any concerns that other employees or associated persons may be linked with bribery. Enva will investigate any allegations or suspected bribery, this includes use of the disciplinary processes and referral of information/investigations to relevant enforcing authorities.

Facilitation Payments

These are typically small unofficial payments made to secure or expedite a routine government action by a government official. Enva does not and will not accept or make facilitation payments of any kind. Our intermediaries or agents acting on our behalf must not breach this position.

Intermediaries, Suppliers, Agents and Service Providers

Employees of Enva exercise due diligence to prevent bribes being offered or given by intermediaries, suppliers, agents or service providers. Third parties are expected to abide to a similar zero tolerance approach to bribery and corruption. Agreements entered into should provide for their termination in the event of actual or perceived corruption or bribery by the third party with any concerns immediately being raised with your manager or any other manager.

Conflicts of Interest

This is a situation in which personal interest of an employee or representative conflicts with the interests of the business. It can be financial, professional, family or other interests. Please report any such conflicts, or perceived possible conflicts, to your manager so they can support you in managing the situation. Enva also has in place requirements for employees to make declarations of interest in accordance with HR policies.

Responsibilities

Employees of Enva must read, understand and comply with this policy. Employees follow procedures (including HR, procurement, and financial procedures) to minimise the risk of actual or perceived bribery or corruption by employees or third parties.

Enva employees will notify their manager or any other manager/Director of any concerns regarding compliance with this policy. Those persons will be investigated in a manner that reflects Enva's zero tolerance position to bribery and corruption. No persons raising such concerns will be subject to unfavourable treatment or disciplinary action.

Expenses claims relating to hospitality, gifts or expenses incurred to third parties must be submitted in accordance with expenses policies along with reasons for the expenses being incurred. Such expenses must not be concealed.

Enva's Board has overall responsibility for reviewing and approving this policy which is implemented within each business.

Enva Policy Statement

Environmental, Social & Corporate Responsibility

Enva has a focus on non-financial performance commitments that address our approach towards responsible business development, sustainability, our impact on society and the environment, and other ethical or corporate governance considerations. We believe this focus will deliver sustainable value for the environment, the communities we operate in and our shareholders.

Environmental

Enva is committed to Recycling and Resource Recovery which forms the basis of our business strategy. We support the life cycle of waste products to provide either a second life, such as the production of energy or, in many cases, closed-loop recycling solutions. Enva is committed to developing new and innovative products and solutions and extending the lifecycle of the world's resources is driving our business forward, saving energy and saving resources.

Enva has a specific published Environmental Policy outlining our commitments in relation to protecting the environment and our environmental performance.

Social Responsibility

Enva is committed to the ideals of inclusion, diversity and equality across society and particularly within our sphere of direct influence. Enva recognises our legal and moral responsibilities across a spectrum of interested parties including our employees, customers, the public and the communities in which we operate.

Enva has a range of policies and procedures in place to implement our social commitments, including specific policies regarding Equal Opportunities & Diversity, Health & Safety and Modern Slavery. Enva also provides direct financial support to a range of both charitable and community based causes in the local communities in which we operate.

Version 1

Corporate Responsibility

Enva is committed to maintaining the highest standards of corporate governance and this responsibility lies with the Board and the Management Teams across the business. Enva is committed to having effective ongoing processes to identifying, evaluating and managing any significant risks faced by our businesses.

Enva has a range of policies and procedures in place to implement our commitment regarding our corporate governance responsibilities, including specific policies regarding Anti Bribery & Corruption and Corporate Criminal Offences.

This policy will be reviewed and updated on a 12 monthly basis or as required due to a change of approach.

Policy Statement

Modern Slavery

Enva is opposed to slavery and human trafficking in any part of our business or our supply chain. We are therefore committed to ensuring that we have adequate procedures in place to identify and prevent these practices. We meet the turnover threshold applicable to section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 in respect of the period covered by this statement.

Our Business

Enva is a full-service and leading provider of recycling and resource recovery solutions. With sustainability at the forefront of its proposition, Enva recovers a broad range of hazardous and non-hazardous waste materials for re-use in manufacturing and for energy conversion, as well as providing a complete portfolio of water and waste water services.

Seasonal work is not a feature of the industry in which we operate. More information on our business is available at enva.com.

Our Structure

Our business is organised into two divisions containing nine business units as follows.

- Recycling - Scotland depots are Linwood, Newbridge, Glenrothes and Irvine.
- Specialist - Scotland depots are Paisley, Dunniflats, Middleton, Gateshead and Blantyre.
- Timber Recycling Limited operates from our Linwood base. Enva Resource Management is based at Middleton and Enva Organics Recycling is based in Blantyre.

Our Supply Chains

- We only source products from reputable suppliers who are based in the UK and the European Union.

Our Policies on Slavery and Human Trafficking

- We are committed to acting ethically and with integrity towards our employees and in all our business relationships.
- Our policy on slavery and human trafficking is set out at the commencement of this statement.

compliance matters

Policy Statement

Procedures on Slavery and Human Trafficking

As part of our compliance with the policies referred to above, we will take the following steps:

- Assess potential risk areas in our supply chains;
- Mitigate the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in our supply chains, including by reviewing, where necessary, the controls that our suppliers have in place and carrying out other suitable checks;
- Monitor potential risk areas in our supply chains on a periodic basis.

Responsibility for ensuring that our procedures are adequate and are adhered to in all areas of our activities rests with the Directors of Enva.

Training

To ensure a suitable level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery, and human trafficking, in our business, and our supply chains, relevant Directors and employees will participate in workshops, over the course of the financial year ending March 2020.

Assurance and Key Performance Indicators

We will review this policy on an annual basis, developing appropriate key performance indicators, to measure compliance.

Overall Score	100%	100%

The below audit findings have been identified during the audit and have been discussed during the close-out meeting.

Critical Non-Compliances
NA	None identified

Major Non-Compliances
NA	None identified

Minor Non-Compliances
NA	None identified

Observations
2.3	The security of data held within the I.T. management system had not been audited to externally recognised standards, such as ISO 27001 or Cyber Essentials.

4.3	There was no access to employee files for the purpose of evidencing completed right to work in the UK checks.
5.2	Supervisory employees determined employee's competence to complete most work-related tasks. The process utilised a judgement call with no formal mechanism for ranking, recording and subsequently re-assessing the employee's ability to meet the required range of competencies.
5.2 (site)	As Management System 5.2.
7.4	Senior Management Health and Safety Inspections were completed, but they were informal with no supporting evidence generated.
7.4 (site)	As Management System 7.4.
7.8	The Company provided and replaced PPE on-demand. The requirement to maintain records of PPE issue was deemed to be unnecessary.
7.8 (site)	As Management System 7.8.
8.1	There was no mention of the rules associated with the taking of prescription/over-the-counter medicines, which may impair physical or cognitive abilities within the Drugs and Alcohol Policy or other employee available documentation.
13.3	The Contractor/Supplier approval arrangements did not address the arrangements for minimising the risk of bribery and corruption within the supply chain.

Positive Elements

I declare that the information provided to the auditor in response to this UVDB Verify Audit was accurate and correct at the time of assessment, to the best of my knowledge. In addition, I confirm that I have received a comprehensive opening and close out meeting detailing all findings and acknowledge that the scores recommended may be subject to change prior to publication.
